- 22.2. If the Address is in England or Wales this Agreement shall be governed by the Laws of England and Wales. Any disputes arising shall be dealt with by the English Courts.

23. Further Conditions relating to the Service

- 23.1. You will not use the Service:
- for any improper, immoral or unlawful purpose; or

 - not to remove, tamper with or obliterate any words or labels on the Equipment; and
 - to be responsible for any loss or damage to the Equipment, regardless of how it happens
 - that you shall only use the Equipment at the Address.
- 23.4. You agree to the following additional obligations, if applicable:

 - to take reasonable steps to ensure that no virus is introduced (by you or any other party) into the Equipment and/or connected telecommunication systems (we strongly advise you to install firewall and anti-virus software on your computer); and
 - to maintain confidentiality of your login names, passwords and other confidential information relating to your access to the Service.
- 23.5. You acknowledge that in order for us to provide the Service you may have to accept and comply with licence terms required from time to time by third party providers of software, equipment or other materials. We will notify you of these at the appropriate time. If you do not wish to accept these licence terms, you have the right to terminate this Agreement within 30 days. No termination charges will apply and we will refund any Charges you have paid in advance, subject to clause 10.7.
- 23.6. Nothing in this Agreement shall transfer ownership of the Equipment, any number or IP address to you.
- 23.7. You shall notify us immediately if any part of the Equipment is lost, damaged (otherwise than by fair wear or tear) or destroyed and you agree to pay all reasonable costs we incur for repairing or replacing the Equipment. If the Equipment includes batteries you agree that you are responsible for ensuring these are recharged or replaced as required.

- 23.8. For safety reasons the Equipment must not be immersed in water nor used in such a way where the Equipment is likely to come into direct contact with water, steam or other liquids.
- 23.9. You hereby agree to give us (or our employees, agents, contractors or any person authorised by us) at reasonable and mutually convenient times (except in the case of emergencies) safe and proper access to the Address to execute any works in connection with the operation of the Service and the Equipment and to, inspect, repair and remove any of the Equipment. If you do not give us access you accept that we may be unable to provide the Service and we will not be responsible for this or any loss arising therefrom. In this situation you will have to pay us the Charges for the period in which we are unable to provide the Service.
- 23.10. If you wish to use any other equipment that we have not supplied we cannot guarantee that the applicable Service will work with that equipment.
- 23.11. The Equipment will remain our property at all times unless otherwise notified to you by us in writing. The software in the Equipment and in any other equipment provided to you by us for use in conjunction with the Service is owned by or licensed to us. You must allow this software to be updated. Failure to do so may affect the Service and we will not be responsible for this or any loss arising therefrom. Updates will happen automatically at no extra charge.
- 23.12. Any Equipment provided by us for use in conjunction with the Service is not supplied as being capable of being used to access any other internet service.
- 23.13. You are responsible for obtaining any consents (for example from your landlord) necessary for installing a Service connection at the address and, if you have a security/panic alarm (or anything else that may be affected by the installation of the Service), for confirming with the provider that the installation of the Service will not affect your security/panic alarm (or similar system).
- 23.14. You accept that you do not own any e-mail addresses that we have given to you. You also accept there may be good reasons why sometimes we may need to change the e-mail addresses given to you. We will do so only when it is reasonably necessary.
- 23.15. Where we provide you with e-mail facilities, web hosting or other Service that involve us providing storage space on our systems, we may impose limits (which we may vary from time to time in accordance with clause 16) on the storage space we provide to you in order to ensure the quality of the Service for you and other users. These limits may relate to the physical amount of web space or the number of mailboxes made available to you, e-mail messages that can be stored and/or the size of any attachments you can send. We may reject or delete material that exceeds the relevant limit. We may also: (a) block receipt of e-mails; and/or (b) archive or delete e-mails and/or attachments from, mailbox accounts which have not been used by you for a reasonable period of time or because you or we have terminated the Service. We will give you notice if we intend to do this and you will have a reasonable opportunity to move the stored e-mails and attachments to another location.
- 23.16. You agree to comply with the Acceptable Use Policy. We, or those authorised by us, may monitor your use of the Service to ensure compliance with this Agreement and the Acceptable Use Policy.

- 23.17. You accept that you do not own any telephone number or IP address we make available to you under your Agreement. You agree not to transfer the telephone number or IP address to anyone else or to try to do so. You accept that we may have to change your telephone number or IP address. We will do so only when it is reasonably necessary or if we are requested to do so by Ofcom or another similar regulator. We will tell you before we change your number or IP address. You may request us to 'port' your phone number from another communications provider and we will try to do this wherever it is reasonably practicable. However you accept that this may not always be possible. In these circumstances we may have to provide you with a new number.
- 23.18. If you breach any term of this clause 23, you'll be liable for all liabilities, claims, damages, losses and costs we suffer as a result of your breach. This is regardless of the terms of Clause 11.

24. Risk

- 24.1. We accept responsibility as set out in clause 11. Otherwise, the use of the Service is at your own risk and subject to all applicable laws. We have no responsibility for any information, software, services or other materials you may obtain using the internet, including loss or damage caused by the introduction, presence or activity in your computer or the internet of any computer virus or hacker. In addition we reserve the right to block access to any information at our sole discretion or otherwise required by law.
- 24.2. Except for the responsibility we accept under clause 11, we shall have no responsibility for any damage or loss, howsoever caused, suffered by you or others as a result of the accuracy or otherwise of information provided by you. You are responsible for making and keeping a copy of your scripts, files, or data as a backup.
- 24.3. If you buy or sell (or hire, or deal with in other ways) goods or services online or by phone using the Service, we will not be a party to those agreements. We are not responsible for any losses, costs or damage you suffer as a result of any such dealings.

25. E-Account(s) (if applicable)

Access

- 25.1. By (i) registering for an E-account and/or (ii) using your registered user name and password to access your E-Account and (iii) by registering your accounts for the Service against your E-Account, you consent to all users of your E-Account making binding decisions against all accounts that are registered against your E-Account(s).
- 25.2. By logging in to an E-Account, you confirm that you are either the E-Account holder or authorised to access the E-Account, and you are the account holder for all accounts that are registered against the E-Account or that you are authorised to access the E-Account and manage all the accounts registered and to make binding decisions for all persons registered against the accounts.

- 25.3. Where either clause 25.1 or 25.2 applies, you will be deemed to have agreed to the terms and conditions detailed in this clause 25.

Your Account and Password

- 25.4. If you choose, or you are provided with, a user identification code, password or any other piece of information as part of our security procedures, you agree to treat such information as confidential. You agree not to disclose it to any third party.
- 25.5. We have the right to disable any user identification code or password, whether chosen by you or allocated by us, at any time, if in our reasonable opinion you have failed to comply with any of the provisions of this clause 25.
- 25.6. If you know or suspect that anyone other than you knows your user identification code or password, you must promptly notify us by calling us on the Customer Service Telephone Number or emailing us on the Customer Service E-mail Address and giving your account details.

Viruses, Malware and Hacking

- 25.7. We will do everything reasonable to ensure that our Website will be secure and free from bugs or viruses, but it is in the nature of the Service that we cannot guarantee this. Our responsibility for this is limited as set out in clause 11.
- 25.8. You are responsible for configuring your information technology, computer programmes and platform in order to access our Service. You should use your own virus protection software.
- 25.9. You must not misuse any website by knowingly introducing any harmful materials (e.g. viruses or other material which is malicious or technologically harmful). You must not attempt to gain unauthorised access to any website, the server on which any website is stored or any server, computer or database connected through our Service. You must not attack any website (including but not limited to our Website or any website related or linked to it). By breaching this provision, you would commit a criminal offence under the Computer Misuse Act 1990. We will report any such breach to the relevant law enforcement authorities and we will co-operate with those authorities by disclosing your identity to them. In the event of such a breach, your right to use our Service will cease immediately.
- 25.10. We will not be liable for any loss or damage caused by a virus, or other material which is malicious, or other technologically harmful material that may infect your computer equipment, computer programs, data or other proprietary material due to your use of our Website or to your downloading of any content on it (or on any website related or linked to it).
